FOCUS FOUR CRIMES

Robbery	2018-104387 – The victim and suspect had an agreement that the victim would fix the suspect’s vehicle. The victim completed the repairs and drove the vehicle to the suspect’s residence. When the suspect became angry at the amount owed, the victim attempted to leave in the vehicle. The suspect grabbed the victim’s cell phone and ran from the scene. The suspect was later located and charged.
Burglary	2018-092277 – A mentally ill person was banging on the back door of a residence on Sugarbush Cir. and broke the window in the process. The individual was later located and transported to FMH for an evaluation. No entry was made and nothing was taken. 2018-092280 –The mentally ill subject in the above mentioned case went to another residence on S. Pendleton Court and located a broken window to a rear basement door. The individual did not gain access and nothing was taken. 2018-098370 – Unknown suspect made entry into a residence on Lancaster Place through the rear sliding door. No forced entry was apparent but the suspect stole a woman’s purse and its contents. There is no suspect information at this time. 2018-101712 – Officers responded to a residence on Apple Way after a property manager advised that painters entered a vacant residence and observed two individuals asleep inside. Officers located the individuals and apprehended them. Nothing was taken in the incident.
Theft of Auto	2018-097164- Victim and suspect were in a physical altercation. Following the altercation, the suspect took the victim’s vehicle without permission. The victim knows the suspect and declined to seek charges. 2018-107741- The victim left his residence to run errands and upon his return he noticed his vehicle was missing. The victim also noticed that his residence was unsecured and it appeared that several locations were rummaged through. The victim provided the suspect information to police believing that they had access to the vehicle keys and the residence. Charges are pending in this case. 2019-000537- The victim advised police that her daughter, the suspect, took her vehicle without permission. After several attempts to have the suspect bring the vehicle back, the victim contacted police. The victim declined to pursue charges at this time.
Theft from Auto	5 incidents occurred – In 2 incidents the suspect broke the video to gain access and steal contents form the vehicle. In 2 incidents the suspect gained access through an unlocked door to steal contents from the vehicle. In the last incident the Victim had multiple friends inside their vehicle and believed one of them took items form the vehicle.
