GUEST SPEAKER:

Mayor McClement, Zack Kershner, & Joe Adkins

The Mayor, Zack & Joe were on hand to talk about Code Enforcement. The Mayors Assistant Nikki Bamonte did a Power Point presentation on Code Enforcement 101. Residents asked numerous questions as to why certain instances have happened and what the city plans on doing about them. Nikki also told residents that the complaints will be available online so they can track the progress of their complaint. She also talked about a new app for phones that will let you report CE complaints on the spot. The City also recommends when possible reporting CE violations either on the website or thru the app. It makes it easier to track and ensures that it goes to the right department.

Residents asked about a few addresses in particular and Zack Kershner said that he submitted a blighted property list to the Mayor and to City Legal Department to review. They looked at many properties and narrowed it down to the top 12. An address in particular was the Asiana and the next court date is on May 29th. The owners have until them to apply for permits and to have signed contracts.

A resident suggested that the city look into volunteer Code Enforcement officers to help monitor the lower end complaints such as tall grass & weeds. Zack said they would look into it.
