GUEST SPEAKER

Julia Ferguson – East Frederick Rising www.eastfrederickrising.com

Julia wanted to talk with residents about this non-profit organization which is made up of volunteers. There are residents, business owners, builders, and practitioners on the board. The organization was created to:

- Ensure smart, sustainable, healthy growth
- Highlight unique character of East Frederick
- Prepare the east side of Frederick for significant growth
- Fulfill the vision for East Frederick adopted by the City

Julia, shared a lot of information with the group which can be found at the above website.

OLD BUSINESS:

- Pedestrian Alley Safety
There was a meeting with the Bicycle Pedestrian Safety Committee to discuss some options for the alley way concerns. The BPAC supports the increase in safety for Maxwell, Kleinharts & Chapel Alleys. Things in consideration are painting of crosswalks, posting signs, and painting lines in the pavement.

NEW BUSINESS:

- Retirement of Truby LaGarde – Truby has been a NAC Coordinator for over 14 years and we will miss her. She promises to still attend the meetings and to assist!
- New NAC logo – thank you to everyone that helped create the new logo! Brochures and yard signs will be ordered in the near future

COMMENTS:

- Sharon _____
Wanted to talk with residents about short-term rentals and that currently they are not paying any rental tax on those properties. She would like to talk with residents about changing that. DARCY HAS INFO
